FATHER'S DAY OBSERVANCE IN GRAND STYLE

What Makes a Dad

God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight,
The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family need,
Then God combined these qualities,
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete,
And so, He called it... Dad

-Author unknown

The Brotherhood of Farish Street Baptist Church celebrated Father's Day in grand style on Sunday, June 17, 2007. The theme was "Christian Men Remaining Focused During These Changing Times." Music was provided by the FSBC Male Chorus and Brothers John Eze Uzodinma II and Guy King provided violin solos during the offering. 55TH ANNUAL WOMAN'S DAY OBSERVANCE

The theme of this year's Woman Missionary Society's Annual Day was "Christian Women Standing Up for Christ." This year's 55th Observance was held on Sunday, April 22, 2007. The sanctuary was filled with a sea of women adorned in white with their respective Circle's corsage to witness the day's festivities. Program chair Mrs. Vera Bullock, WMS President Mrs. Mattie Stevens and the committee of missionary circles presented an outstanding and enjoyable program. The speaker for the occasion was FSBC First Lady, Mrs. Gladys Marie Johnson. Her timely message issued a charge to women to "Stand up for Christ" in the home, at work and in the community.

This was a great day of recognizing leadership, accomplishments and vision. Guests, friends and family were present to commemorate this special occasion. Local gospel recording artist, Ms. Virgia Dishmon mesmerized the audience with her beautiful singing voice. A special tribute was done in remembrance of women who entered into eternal care since last year's observance. The annual Sadie Hendricks/Rosie Mitchell Woman of the Year recipient was presented to Mrs. Annie Kate Randall Lattimore, who was serenaded with a lovely musical (flute) tribute by Miss Ashley Davis. The celebration ended with a fellowship reception in the Maggie Little Turner Fellowship Hall.

JUST FOR FUN

Smiles From the Bible...

Q: Who was the greatest comedian in the Bible?

A: Samson. He brought the house down.

Q: What excuse did Adam give to his children as to why he no longer lived in Eden?

A: Your mother ate us out of house and home

I will sing of your steadfast love, O Lord, forever; with my

CELEBRATION OF FAMILY

mouth I will proclaim your faithfulness to all generations. (Psalms 89:1)

Family reunions have been long-standing celebrations in the African American community. This ritual received a huge boost with the publication of Alex Haley's Roots, and the subsequent television movie series of the same name. Family and community building are central to our way of life. It is with gratitude and joy that families remember all kinfolk in celebration of family.

Many of us have extended family that reach far beyond our blood lines. This extended family existed in Africa, during slavery, and continues today. Not only do we have brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles and cousins, but also family that extends to our neighbors, friends, and church members. We have "play" aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews. Who doesn't know a Big Mama, Paw Paw, Granny, Lil'Sis, Ba'Bro and even Godparents. We give thanks for all of these relationships and personal connections made throughout our lives.

Let us continue to thank God for the love, care and support of our family. Through them we find renewal, strength, unity and love. During the Summer many families will gather from across the country to reunite and fellowship. May all be blessed with many more reunions and a family structure branded as one in the spirit of Jesus Christ.

Senior Mission Trip. On June 4, 2007 a group of 31 energetic, enthusiastic, and anticipatory Christian seniors departed from Farish Street Baptist Church bound for Atlanta and Savannah, GA. The group included one brave man from the church or one "young lady" as the group fondly described him. Joining FSBC were 13 members from our sister congregations and the mother of one of our members joined the tour in Newton, MS.

Each morning upon boarding the bus, prayer was held to seek the blessings of our heavenly Father to begin the day. The first tour was in Atlanta with a visit to the Martin Luther King Center which is replete with outstanding memorabilia of "The Man and The Movement." The group then traveled to the CNN Center for lunch. One-half of the group chose to explore The Aquarium and while others toured The World of Coke. Both attractions were thoroughly enjoyed were very informative. The tour also passed through the Atlanta University Center which has afforded many of our church family excellent educational opportunities.

On Wednesday the tour arrived in historic Savannah, GA. One of the tour guides pointed out that Savannah has two distinct histories –one from the Anglo Saxon view and the other from an African American standpoint. Tour coordinator, Ms. Nell Tolliver, did an excellent job of planning which afforded the opportunity to blend two tours, each giving an overview from each perspective. The African American tour was conducted by Charles Hoskins, who has done extensive research into the history of Savannah. He has written several books and papers which were available for purchase. The group thoroughly enjoyed a dinner cruise down the famous Savannah River and witnessed a magnificent sunset while sailing. While in Savannah the group had the opportunity to tour the campus of Savannah State University. Also, the group was joined by a friend of Mrs. Belivira Junior, who had worked there for many years as registrar. She was an excellent and gracious tour guide.

Participants who traveled on this well planned tour give a special "Thank You" to Mrs. Nell Tolliver, her committee, and Mrs. Lola Weakley, the President of the Senior Mission, for the magnificent job this informative and enjoyable trip. Along the way participants enjoyed fellowship and playing many fun games. Angela Stewart assisted with the games and awarding of prizes. There were also several opportunities to shop and spend time on your own. This trip will long be fondly remembered. It was a safe and enjoyable trip and all say, "TO GOD BE THE GLORY."

BLACK HISTORY MONTH EXPO. The Annual Black History Month Expo and African Marketplace, held on Saturday, February 24, 2007, was a successful, vibrant and exciting experience for all the participants vendors and attendees. Thank you to coordinator Mrs. Dorothy T. Stewart and her committee for their dedication and hard work in organizing this exceptional event.

The Expo celebrates our church's continuing and expanding commitment to the preservation of African American History, heritage and culture. It is designed to showcase local merchants and artists who sell Afrocentric art, clothing, music and other items from the homeland and the African Diaspora. Keeping black money in black communities is a positive outcome of the event. The Expo promotes local economic development by highlighting small businesses and assisting them in marketing their products to the general public; a diverse array of products, from hand crafted quilts to metal sculpture filled the hall waiting the eager shoppers.

Movement, action and drama started the event with the power of tribal drums, led by drummers Edward Butler and Napoleon Campbell. When the beat of the drum signaled the opening of the Marketplace, joyfully the public came to participate and to celebrate. The official greetings were brought by the Jackson Chief of police, Ms. Shirlene Anderson the first female to hold that post. Mrs. Gladys Marie Johnson extended a warm welcome from the church. Griot and vocalist, Mrs. Lannie Spann-McBride set a spiritual focus for the Expo through her music and oratory. The Expo recreates the vibrant and busy lifestyle of a native African village marketplace where artists performed and griots told stories. Premier seamstress, Mrs. Lola Weakley taught basic sewing, Mrs. Mamie Buchanan and others provided survival and soulful cooking, and Mrs. Christine Rhodes closed out the demonstrations with a dramatic presentation of Paul Laurence Dunbar's poem, "In the Morning."

Our goal is to promote understanding and preservation of our culture by telling our story through films and eyewitness accounts. The following special sessions provided in depth information: Eyes on the Prize, We Can Fly, and The African Presence in the Bible.
